PRIVATE PROPOSAL · FOR ALI LOVE ONLY

THE SPIRAL

LOVE IS THE SIGNAL

A living artwork built from your world — written by hand, in the century-old craft that gave electronic music its image.

NOTHING TOUCHES ALILOVE.WORLD

LOVE ALWAYS WINS

THE THESIS

Love is not a claim. It is a connection you can shape.

What you are holding is your catalogue turned into one continuous dive: your site, your film, your records and your stages, rebuilt as an interactive cinema. Every section of alilove.world is there, exactly as it stands today — and each one now lives inside a world of its own, breathing with the music.

It was not generated. It was written — line by line, as code. The planets are mathematics. The rose is geometry with a seed. The grooves of the vinyl are drawn by a function. That is the point of this whole proposal:

The machines never replaced the artists. In electronic music they became the instruments — the 808 did not end drummers, it birthed house. This project is written inside that same tradition: programming as art, by a human hand.

The pages that follow show the lineage this work belongs to, the piece itself, the protections built into its source code, and the campaign it unlocks — including pre-save, wired in the honest way.

THE LINEAGE

A century of visual music

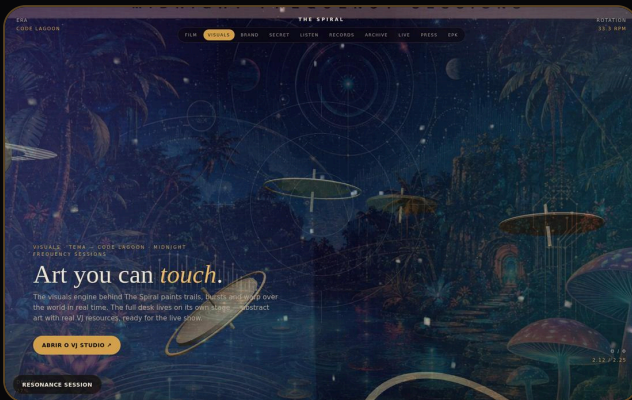

- | | |
|------|---|
| 1921 | Silent cinema — visual music is born.
Oskar Fischinger paints music onto film, frame by frame, by hand. |
| 1958 | John Whitney.
The computer becomes a poetic instrument — motion is composed, not decorated. |
| 1966 | Liquid light shows.
Oil, glass and human hands, performed live above the dancefloor. |
| 1969 | Nam June Paik.
The electronic image becomes something you play, like a synth. |
| 1974 | Kraftwerk.
One total identity across sound, object, stage and image. |
| 1980 | Roland 808 / 707.
The drum machine replaces no one — Chicago and Detroit turn it into liberation. |
| 1990 | Rave flyers & demoscene.
Cheap print and home computers: code becomes community art. |
| 2001 | Processing & creative coding.
The artwork itself becomes executable — and performable. |
| 2026 | THE SPIRAL.
Your catalogue as a living, programmed world — the next verse of this song. |

In electronic music, the visual identity and the programming were never two crafts. This lineage is the argument.

THE PIECE · I

Your site, as a dive

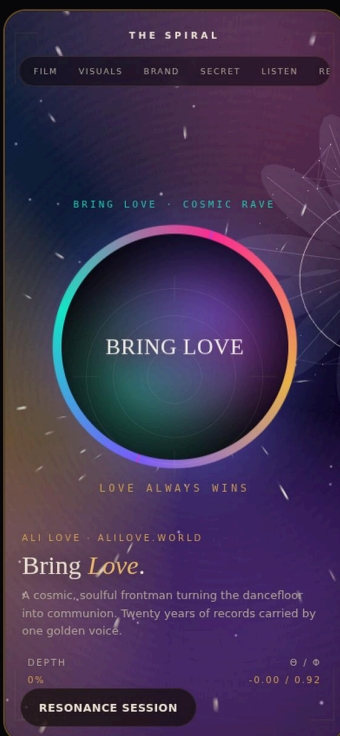

The structure is yours, untouched: Bring Love · Film · Visuals · Brand · Secret · Listen · Records · Archive · Live · Press · EPK. Your portal is cloned to the pixel — and given real depth: you scroll through it. The film's eleven clips and the four stages play full-screen in their sections. Each chapter lives inside one of the six approved covers as a world of its own.

VISUALS — THE OBSERVATORY, TINTED PER SECTION

RECORDS — THE REAL SLEEVES, THE COVERS AS WORLDS

BUILT FOR THE PHONE

One instruction only: scroll, slowly. The camera dives into the record and descends through every era. The deeper you go, the calmer it breathes — like the end of a long night done right.

THE PIECE · II

Three new instruments

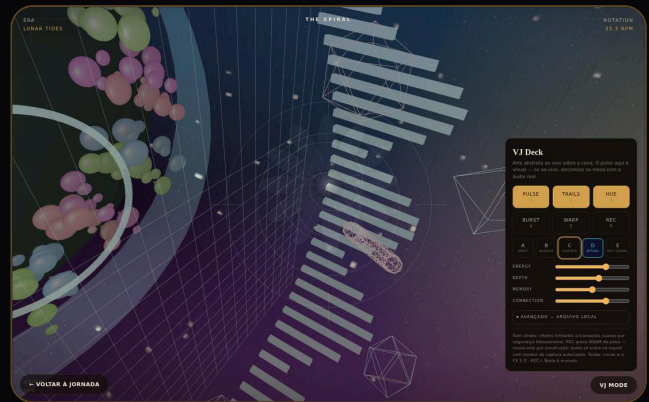

The Resonance Rose. The campaign's living emblem: twelve petals, six crystal axes, a memory spiral, two counter-rotating orbital fields and a warm core in cool light — generated from a seed, slightly asymmetric, so it feels alive rather than corporate. It greets you in the sky of the opening, returns at Listen, and closes the finale.

Resonance Session. A thirty-second piece about connection: isolated particles tremble; aligned groups form bridges; the room remembers the final shape. Tune, shape, capture. No score, no game over, no account — the capture is the trophy.

VJ Studio 2.0. A live instrument: five scene banks — Orbit, Groove, Garden, Ritual, Day Signal — four macros — Energy, Depth, Memory, Connection — one-key scene changes, recording straight from the stage. Built to travel from the browser to TouchDesigner and Resolume for festival-scale shows.

THE PRINCIPLE

Made by hand. Protected by design.

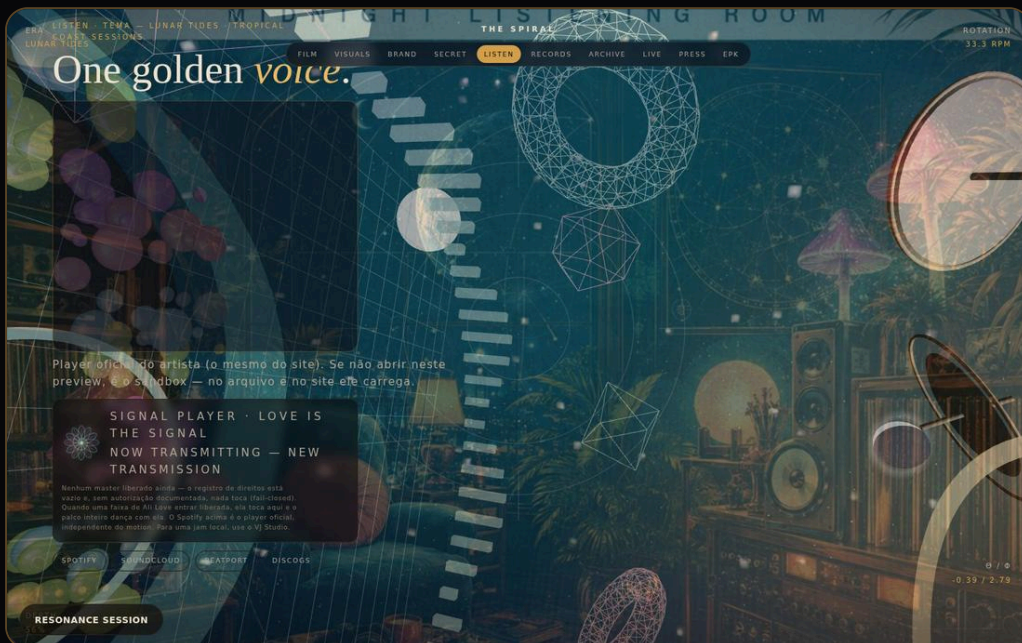

Nothing here was scraped or taken. The engine is handwritten generative code: every planet, petal, groove and world is a function, not somebody's photograph. From the great covers of this culture we inherit grammar — night, repetition, the single monumental object — never pixels.

The music is locked by default. This is real code from the source, not a promise in a slide:

const podoTocar = m => !!m
  && m.status === "cleared-production"
  && m.webPlayback === true
  && m.interactiveSync === true
  && m.visualizerUse === true; // no rights, no sound

If a track's rights are not documented, the stage stays silent. The release system is embargo-safe the same way: it refuses to invent titles or dates. Recording captures visuals only, unless a track is explicitly cleared for capture. The ethics are compiled into the artwork.

Where AI served: as an instrument in human hands — sketching, unblocking, accelerating code that a human artist designed, directed, reviewed and signed. The same relationship a producer has with a drum machine. Humans make the art. The tools keep the tempo.

THE CAMPAIGN

LOVE IS THE SIGNAL

- T-42 A signal is present. 5.28-second dark loops, a warm pulse. No reveal.
- T-28 The Resonance Rose. Emblem reveal — key visual, poster, site portal.
- T-21 Memory returns. Archive fragments, documentary micro-stories from twenty years.
- T-14 Connect the signal. The Session goes public; people share their captures.
- T-7 Transmission incoming. Film excerpts, VJ rehearsals.
- T0 LOVE IS THE SIGNAL. The site flips to campaign state: album data, film, listen/buy.
- T+1 The room remembers. Curated captures, live recaps, the archive keeps growing.

PRE-SAVE, WIRED IN THE HONEST WAY

The NOW TRANSMITTING slot on the site flips from “NEW TRANSMISSION” to your label's official pre-save link the day the release is announced — and not one minute before. The system refuses to fake a date; all timing above stays relative until your label's date is real.

Deliverables, cut for every stage: 16:9 · 9:16 · 4:5 · 1:1 · 21:9 — edits of 5.28 s, 10 s, 15 s and 30 s — clean, texted and alpha versions for stage and social.

The words: LOVE IS THE SIGNAL · TUNE IN · THE ROOM REMEMBERS · WE ARE NOT LISTENING ALONE · RETURN CHANGES THE SIGNAL.

WHAT WE NEED FROM YOU

Four things, at your pace

1 · Open it on your phone, and just scroll.

<https://the-spiral-preview-1ff7ito25-admin-72622007s-projects.vercel.app/vj/>

THE SECOND ADDRESS IS THE LIVE INSTRUMENT — VJ STUDIO 2.0

2 · Tell us what feels right and what doesn't. The structure is yours and stays yours; nothing goes live on alilove.world without your word. The link is unlisted but public — keep it close until launch.

3 · Choose the tracks the visuals may dance to. Each one gets a documented clearance; until then the player stays locked — by design.

4 · Bless the Rose. Final sign-off on the Resonance Rose as the campaign emblem and key visual.

Twenty years of records carried by one golden voice — now carried by a world that listens back.
